

Successful Students

The Successful Students Triangle provides a graphical representation of the ingredients to creating successful students. When the 3 ingredients are in place (positive school climate, healthy relationships with caring adults, and high academic expectations monitored with frequent feedback) we create academically successful students of character.